An American Indian Song

My Sweet Love Call

(Indian Flute Song)

I'll cut a flute at the river's edge
A flute from the willow tree;
A magic flute to play my love
For Her in the white teepee.

The Bluebird's trill, the Whippoorwill
Sounding thru the dark;
The sobbing note of the Wood Dove's throat,
The call of the Meadow Lark.

This woodland song I'll play for Her
When evening shadows fall;
And Wand'rer Winds across the Lake
Will bear my sweet love call.

INDIAN DAWN

Dawn wind sighs;
Wild Bird waking;
Paling stars--
Day now breaking.

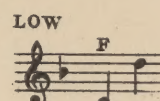

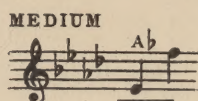

From thy lodge
Smoke plume winging;--
Soon you come
Thru red willows singing.

Sweet love song
My flute calling;--
O'er far hills
Dawn light falling.

From her lodge
Wild Bird coming;--
Hark, my heart!
Hush, now, thy wild drumming!

The musical score is for a piece titled "Indian Dawn 4-1 Med." It is written in E-flat major (three flats) and 4/4 time. The score consists of five systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand. The vocal line has lyrics: "Sweet love song —", "My flute call - ing; —", "O'er far hills —", and "Dawn light fall - ing." The key signature changes to E-flat major with a double sharp for the final measure of the last system.

From her lodge —

The first system of the musical score. The vocal line is in treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The lyrics are "From her lodge —". The piano accompaniment consists of two staves: the right hand in treble clef and the left hand in bass clef. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand and chords in the right hand, with some eighth-note runs.

Wild Bird com - ing; —

The second system of the musical score. The vocal line continues with the lyrics "Wild Bird com - ing; —". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern, featuring chords and eighth-note accompaniment.

Hark, my heart! —

The third system of the musical score. The vocal line continues with the lyrics "Hark, my heart! —". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern, featuring chords and eighth-note accompaniment.

Hush, now thy wild drum - ming! —

The fourth system of the musical score. The vocal line continues with the lyrics "Hush, now thy wild drum - ming! —". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern, featuring chords and eighth-note accompaniment.

A Pirate Bold

Behold in me, a wolf of the sea,
Who roams the Spanish Main;
For jewels or gold, or a maiden bold,
I spill red blood to gain.
My captives are from near and far,
A silly sickening lot,
Their pleading eyes, or wailing cries,
To me are less than rot.

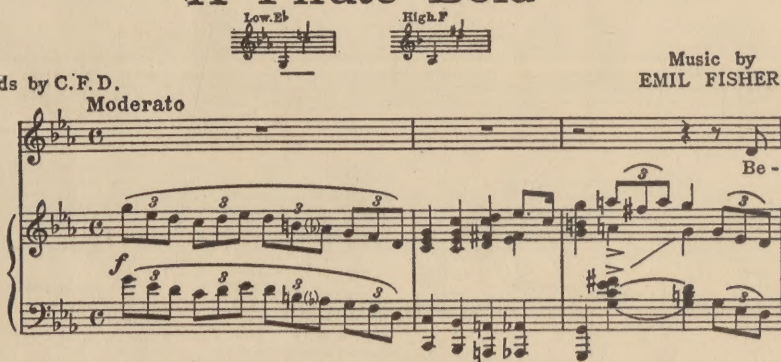

I'm a pirate bold who's very cruel and cold,
Defy me if you dare;
I've sailed the seas, in every known breeze,
My victims I never spare;
I'm known to fame for every shame,
But what care I if gold's my aim!
I'm a pirate bold who's very cruel and cold,
Defy me if you dare.

An English Ballad Success

"THE LITTLE OLD GARDEN"

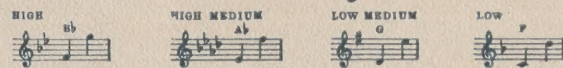

In a little old garden away from the world,
I wander and sing 'mid the blossoms unfurl'd,
I treasure its music, its sunshine and dew,
For I live there, and dream there, and love
there with you.

It's a little old garden, when I'm tired and old,
I pray God may give me to have and to hold,
Its song-birds and roses and glory all mine,
And you, dear, to make that dear garden divine!
